

What Others Say About LPM

Still don't understand what LPM is all about and how it can be of help to you?
Here's what others have had to say about LPM, our local programs, workshops, conferences, and the whole LPM experience.

"..The class has encouraged, nurtured and challenged me to understand and appreciate the multiple layers of worship done well." - Pastor Sarah Brown, Iowa

"My priest wanted me to learn more about liturgy since I'm a new Episcopalian. The conference experience has been very beneficial in exposing me to music I am not as familiar with from my previous church background." - Churchill Cooke, Visalia, California

"An internet search led me and a friend to LPM. I've been to many conferences and the spiritual tone of this conference as it centered around worship is wonderful. I'm being spiritually nourished as well as taught. - Pamela Hoch, Kerrville, Texas

"LPM has become a tremendous force in church music leadership. THANK YOU!" - Steve O'Connor, California

"I've recently retired. I've always been a semi-professional musician and a friend told me about LPM so I could explore further if I have a calling to church work. It's inspiring to be here and it's helping my discern the next step. - Rick Hoyt, Lyons, New York

"My deacon told me about it and I came to see what resources were available for our small parish. I've found some great ones to help us incorporate the use of not only The Hymnal 1982, but also Wonder, Love and Praise into our worship." - Jerry Olmes, Soldatna, Alaska

"This is my first LPM conference. I am filled with gratitude for this organization because it clearly strengthens the worship life of the Church." - Rev. Melinda Quivik, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

"I came last year and was very impressed with the enrichment program. So I came this year to renew friendships and engage in the enrichment programs again." - Paul Hanson, Des Plaines, Illinois

"LPM has given me exactly what I needed: encouragement as well as a challenge." -
Rachel Portnoy, Portland, Oregon
