If you are attending or will be visiting the Episcopal Church General Convention in the Anaheim Convention Center, be sure to check out the LPM display. From July 7-16 LPM will have a presence at the AAM (Association of Anglican Musicians) booth.

LPM Coordinator Training

Coordinator Training and Recertification continues this summer. On Tuesday, July 28, 2009 a session will be held in conjunction with the Mississippi Conference on Church Music and Liturgy in Canton, MS.

A reminder that Coordinators need to be recertified every five years to receive access to the curriculum at a discounted rate.

Scholarships are available for persons attending Coordinator or Recertification Training in the amount of $100 for coordinators or $75 for recertifications. Click here for more information.

LPM Leaders attend Calvin Grant Colloquium

John Marsh and Ellen Johnston attended the Calvin Grant Colloquium recently at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, Michigan. The LPM National Board received a 2009 grant to help establish a local LPM program in northwest Minnesota and develop materials from the formation process to help establish other local programs. The colloquium brings together grant recipients to learn from each other, ask questions of the Calvin Institute for Christian Worship and to network. Visit the Calvin Institute for Christ Worship website for more information.

LPM: How Can We Help You?

LPM prepares confident musicians and worship leaders who help their congregations sing well and participate more fully in worship. We seek to stir imagination and creativity, and improve musical, pastoral, and leadership skills. If you are seeking ways of empowering your music ministry, contact Anna Leppert-Largent (lpm-online@sbcglobal.net) or John Marsh (marek2go@gmail.com). We are here to help YOU!
